

The FCC needs to continue to advocate for consumers, not the big telemarketing companies. I urge you not to weaken Wisconsin's protective law. The average citizen does not have time to answer all these nuisance calls.

Thank you for your consideration.